NEW SKIRT FOR 1865-6.

THE GREAT INVENTION OF THE AGE IN HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS invention consists of Double (or Two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to every Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Rail-road Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when used to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The hoops are covered with 2 pliy double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single vinyl covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts.

The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice on double covered to prevent the covering from getting off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WESTS, BRADLEY & CARY, Proprietors of the Invention and Sole Manufacturers, Chambers, and 79-81 Reade Streets, New York.

For Sale in all first class Stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America, and the West Indies.

Something New!

THE WORLD RENOWNED WILLOWGROVE'S SPRING GUN GRAIN DRILL.

MANUFACTURED BY CROWELL DAVIDSON, GREENSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA.

THIS Celebrated Drill is superior to any other machine of the kind yet introduced to the public. Among its advantages are these: It distributes the grain with perfect regularity. It never shoves or breaks the grain. Rough ground or fast or slow driving will not vary the quantity sown to the acre. It can be regulated whilst in motion. The teeth or shovels are so constructed as not to break when coming in contact with roots and stones, but spring back to their proper places. It will sow every kind of grain with the same hopper. It also measures the quantity of grain to be sown to the acre, and is simple in its construction and easily managed.

THE GUANO ATTACHMENT. This invention for sowing ALL KINDS of Guano and Compost makes the Drill perfect and complete, it sows the grain and manures the ground at the same time. The construction of the Attachment is very simple, and is easily repaired. It will sow from one to twenty bushels to the acre, and the feed can be regulated whilst in motion, to suit poor or rich ground. These machines need only be seen to be admired. All who have tried them pronounce them the most complete arrangement for the purpose ever offered to the public. Hundreds of certificates can be produced from practical farmers in Franklin county and in Maryland to prove that the machine is no humbug, and has given entire satisfaction in every case where it has been tried. GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN SEWING MACHINES.

Patented February 14th, 1860.

250 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

THIS Machine is constructed on entirely new principles of mechanism, possessing many rare and valuable improvements, having been examined by the most profound experts, and pronounced to be Simplicity and Perfection Combined.

It has a straight needle, perpendicular in action, like the "Lock or Shuttle Stitch," which will "Neuter Kip nor Ravel," and it is alike on both sides; performs perfect sewing on every description of Material, from Linen to the finest Nanook Muslin, with cotton, linen or silk thread, from the coarsest to the finest number.

Having neither "Cam nor Cog Wheel," and the least possible friction, it runs as smooth as glass, and is

EMPHATICALLY A NOISELESS MACHINE.

It requires fifty per cent less power to drive it than any other Machine in the market. A girl twelve years of age can work it steadily, without fatigue or injury to health, its strength and "Wonderful Simplicity" of construction renders it almost impossible to get out of order and is Guaranteed by the Company to give entire satisfaction.

We respectfully invite all those who may desire to supply themselves with a superior article, to come and examine this "Unrivaled Machine."

One half hour's instruction is sufficient to enable any person to work this Machine to their entire satisfaction.

Religious and Charitable Institutions will be liberally dealt with.

Agents wanted for all Towns in the United States, where Agents are not already established. Also for Cuba, Mexico, Central and South America, to whom a liberal discount will be given. T. J. McARTHUR & CO.

THE ADAMS SENTINEL AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON ON OUR LATE STRUGGLE.—The following letter was published in a late number of the London Star:

Executive Office, Washington, D. C., July 20, 1865.—Mr. G. F. Confort, No. 2 Franzosische strasse, Berlin, Prussia.—My Dear Sir:—I thank you for your letter of the 30th of June. I shall use my best endeavor to make my administration national, and not partisan. Perverting power or influence to partisan ends is only treason than attempting the nation's life. Our nation has come out of its four years' struggle for existence strengthened and purified, and with a capacity for a growth in the future unequalled in history. I am pleased to bear from so intelligent an observer as yourself that the fact that our government is a government of the people—deriving all its power from the people, existing only for the people—is being appreciated in Europe. I trust our national success will prove the success of popular principles throughout the world.

I am, sir, very truly yours,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

Several large fires are raging in the woods in Massachusetts. The Boston Journal, of Tuesday, says: "A fire broke out yesterday morning in the woods known as the Mahoney estate, in the upper part of Malden, and was burning all day and late last night. There was every prospect of its burning dwelling houses at last accounts. The engines were out in the afternoon, but could do nothing on account of lack of water. A terrible fire has been raging in the vicinity of Lynn for two or three days past. Yesterday it had reached an illuminating height. It is reported that at least a thousand acres of wood lots had been burned and three dwelling houses between Lynn and South Reading. The fire was caused by an Irishman, who set a quantity of brush on fire to consume it."

West Virginia furnished to the armies of the United States 31,884 men. This, however, does not include the men who were in the service of the State, and who rendered material service to the Government, by protecting the border, and suppressing the operations of guerrillas.

Frank Cheatham, late General in the Confederate army, has sent in the following application for pardon: "You know me, Mr. President—who I am and what I have done. I am sorry; and if you will pardon me I will be a faithful citizen henceforward. And, if there is any more fighting to be done, count me in wherever I may be needed."

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has made the following decision:

Butchers who pay a license tax of $10 may retail other merchandise than meat at the same store, but may not peddle meat without a pedler's license.

Butchers who pay a license tax of $8 may peddle meat or fish without pedler's license, but cannot sell other articles.

The banks of Virginia are in anything but a satisfactory condition. They owe too much rebel paper. The Exchange Bank of Virginia, which has branches all over the State, reports $150,000 in specie, and $6,700,000 in Confederate bonds; the bank of Virginia, $8,000,000 in specie, and $8,000,000 Confederate bonds.

The Paris correspondent of the News says:

"The son of the late President of the U. States, Capt. Lincoln, a youth of about 19, is now in Paris. He is studying for the bar, and has taken advantage of the vacation to come over and see something of the Old World."

The latest fashions of ladies' shoes have red garter strings, red bows on the toes, and red garter tops.

F. H. Smith, of Birmingham, Conn., lately coughed up an ounce ball which went nearly through his head in the battle of Averyboro, N. C., and could not be previously extracted.

Accounts from Constantinople state that 2,800 buildings were destroyed by the great fire, and upward of 22,000 persons were rendered homeless. The cholera has almost entirely disappeared from Constantinople.

THE UNION TRIUMPHANT!

IMPARTIAL JURIES!!

Justice to the Border Sufferers!!!

GRATITUDE TO THE SOLDIERS!!!

There will be a UNION MASS MEET IN GETTYSBURG, on SATURDAY EVENING NEXT, SEPTEMBER 30TH, at 7 o'clock.

D. MCNAUGHEY, Esq., Union Candidate for the State Senate, and several others, will address the meeting.

COME ONE! COME ALL!

The Washington House, opposite the Depot, has been sold by McConaughy and Horner, to Israel Tount, for $5,000 cash.

Joseph S Gitt, has sold his large three story, brick building in New Oxford, to Wm. Emmer, for $5,000 cash.

We learn that the people of the Ardsdale Lutheran Charge have presented their pastor, Rev. J. K. Miller, with a handsome and substantial Buggy, costing upwards of $200.

We learn also that the German Reform people of the same charge have presented their pastor, Rev. Jacob Zeigler, with a fine Buggy, the cost of which we did not hear.

These evidences of good will are we know fully deserved, and are pleased to record them, because they speak well for the pastors and their people.

Lamentable Event.

On Saturday last, Mr. SAMUEL GILLILAND, residing near Heidlersburg, left his house for the purpose of gleaning. In the evening, not coming home, his family became alarmed, and went to search for him.

He was found in the woods, dead, with his gun beside him, the whole load having entered his side. The particulars of his death are not known. He leaves a large young family.

The Fair at Bendersville last week was very largely attended—the number on Wednesday being estimated at over 5,000 persons. The stock of Horses came fully up to expectation, and indeed beyond. The exhibition of otherstock, we were informed, was not so full and satisfactory as in some other years—neither in the Ladies' department, but it was highly respectable, and reflected great credit on all concerned. The Managers realized quite a large sum, more than sufficient to pay all expenses. There were some outside performances not in the programme; but when discovered, were promptly checked by the worthy managers,

"Mr. Bliss, of Alabama, facetiously inquired, in cases where parties did not have the twenty thousand dollars, making the thirteenth exception, the Government would make it up to them."

Mr. Seward replied that it would make it up in kindness and good will, and the preservation of peace and quiet for themselves and their families.

He made a delicate reference to the effort that had been made to assassinate him, and said he would tell an anecdote. That when he learned it was the intention of the Southerners at Washington to pay him his respects, he stated to the friend who informed him that he would be at home this evening, at eight o'clock. He then notified Mr. Frederick Seward that he would have a reception this evening.

"Reception of whom?" inquired he.

"Of the rebels."

"Unless it be a more agreeable reception of the rebels than the last one we had, I would prefer not to be present."

"Safe enough, he is not present; but he is too unwell to be out."

Lieutenant General Scott, who is residing in New York, is represented by visitors as quite well, and as straight as an arrow. He intends to spend the winter in New Orleans.

"Divide and Conquer."

The "Democratic" party realizes the fact, says the Lebanon Courier, that the Union organization, intact and vigilant, is invincible. They know that to meet it is a fair and well understood, and clearly defined contest on the principles that have divided the parties, is to suffer inevitable defeat.—They, therefore, are shaping their tactics in accordance with this condition of facts, and are laying their shrewdest schemes and exercising their craftiest instincts to occasion division in the Union party. Whenever they can sent out the least division of sentiment among Union men, they seek to magnify it, and if possible to excite hostile feeling. They have descended from a high toned, chivalrous opposition to the low occupation of tale bearers and mischief-makers. They have been most unscrupulously trying to create among Union men a want of confidence in President Johnson, while on the other hand they have been as busy in trying to excite a prejudice against those of the Union party whom they choose to represent as not fully endorsing the policy of the President. And as this has been, and is, their national policy, so, also, is it their local policy. Every little Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart of their party is busy trying to make mischief between Union men in order to create a schism in the Union ranks, that may enable them to break our centre and put our forces to flight, leaving them masters of the field and the victors of the day.

Now, need we appeal to Union men to be on their guard against these machinations of an unscrupulous enemy! Need we point to the shameful history of that party in the past, and of the frightful danger which ought to be practiced in the proceedings of State requires an explanation of the views which this government has taken of the questions which the Vice Chancellor has discussed in his reasons before mentioned.

The United States do not admit that the combination of disloyal citizens, which have raised the standard of insurrection, is now or has at any previous time been a government de facto, or in any sense a political power capable of taking, holding, giving, asserting, or maintaining corporate rights in any form, whether municipal or international. It is true that a different view of the character of the insurgents has seemed to find favor with some portions of the British nation, and even with the British government, and yet with the British government, as equally true, that so often as that antagonistic opinion has been advanced by her Britannic Majesty's government in its intercourse with the United States, it has been firmly, though, as we trust, always courteously denied.

The United States controvert and deny the declaration of the Vice Chancellor, that they are "successors" of the rebellion; and they are now, and during all the time of the rebellion have been, just what they were before the rebellion began—a sovereign State, absolutely entitled to the regulation and control of all property and person within the United States, subject only to the limitations of their own Constitution.

It need hardly be said that the United States will hold themselves under no obligations whatever to accept of or to so conform their proceedings to the conditions which the Court of Chancery or any other Court of Great Britain may have the assumption to dictate or prescribe in the present or any other litigation. They claim and insist upon the restoration of the cotton, now in question, and while they are content to receive it through the decree of the municipal tribunals of Great Britain, they insist upon their absolute right to the same through the action of her Britannic Majesty's government.

You may instruct the counsel who are active in behalf of the United States in the views herein expressed. Her Majesty's government have not in any way made themselves responsible for the positions assumed by the Vice Chancellor, and, therefore, it would seem not only unnecessary but even improper to bring, at the present time, the subjects herein discussed to the attention of Earl Russell. If, however, you should discover that her Majesty's Ministers are laboring under any misapprehension of the views of this government which should seem to need correction, you will supply such correction, upon a proper occasion and in a friendly and courteous manner.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

Mr. Seward and the Southerners.

A Washington correspondent gives a pleasant account of a call by several leading Southerners upon Secretary Seward, from which we take the following:

"A desire was expressed by several that the Government would at an early day adopt a general amnesty. Mr. Seward said he hoped the States would all be in their appropriate places soon. For the present the Government must make sure work of preserving the peace of the nation.

"Mr. Bliss, of Alabama, facetiously inquired, in cases where parties did not have the twenty thousand dollars, making the thirteenth exception, the Government would make it up to them."

Mr. Seward replied that it would make it up in kindness and good will, and the preservation of peace and quiet for themselves and their families.

He made a delicate reference to the effort that had been made to assassinate him, and said he would tell an anecdote. That when he learned it was the intention of the Southerners at Washington to pay him his respects, he stated to the friend who informed him that he would be at home this evening, at eight o'clock. He then notified Mr. Frederick Seward that he would have a reception this evening.

"Reception of whom?" inquired he.

"Of the rebels."

"Unless it be a more agreeable reception of the rebels than the last one we had, I would prefer not to be present."

"Safe enough, he is not present; but he is too unwell to be out."

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company, at a meeting a few days ago, subscribed $400,000 to the Washington county Railroad, which is to extend from Weston to Hyattstown, and there were private subscriptions to a large amount. The amount thus far subscribed is $58,000—so that all hope of the Western Maryland Road in that quarter is over.

LOYAL MEN LOOK HERE!

The following proceedings, had on the 3d day of January, 1864, in the Senate of Pennsylvania, we copy from page 6 of the Legislative Record, 1861, as follows:

GEN. U. S. GRANT AND OTHERS.

Mr. LOWRY offered the following resolution:

Resolved by the Senate, that the thanks of the loyal people of Pennsylvania are due and are hereby tendered to Gen. U. S. Grant and the other officers and soldiers serving under him, for the series of gallant services and glorious victories resulting in the liberation of the faithful Union people of East Tennessee from a military despotism more galling than ever was that of Great Britain.

On the question,

Will the Senate proceed to a second reading of the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr.

DONOVAN and Mr. WALLACE, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—Messrs. Champneys, Connell,

Dunlap, Fleming, Graham, Hoge, Householder, Johnson, Lowry, McCandless, Nichols, Ridgway, Turrell, Wilson, Worthington and Penney, Speaker—16.

NAYS—Messrs. Beardsdale, Buecher,

Clymer, Donovan, Glitz, Hopkins, Kinsley, Lamberton, Latta, McSherry, Montgomery, Reilly, Smith, Stark, Stein and Wallace—16.

So the question was determined in the negative.

Here stands the name of every democratic Senator recorded against a vote of thanks to the gallant General GRANT who brought the war to a successful close.

Among the NOES stands the name of the leader of that same party, WILLIAM A. WALLACE, the chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, who to day professes such love for the soldiers.

We do not care to ask how any patriot soldier of the republic can stand upon a platform which proclaims his struggles in the war a disgrace, for as the people of this nation have, by the events of the last four years, shown their ability, civilians as they were, to save the republic from the consequences of the treason of many of their educated soldiers, it will not matter much hereafter how many more soldiers desert the Union cause and principles, seduced by the temptations of office held out by traitors. Our business is not to lament the weakness of mind or the idiosyncrasies of such men. The people will make a short reckoning with them at the polls, as they did with McClellan, and many others who fancied that their services could obscure the villainous principles of the party under whose banner they became candidates for office. One duty now is to teach the men who hold such conventions, and pass such resolutions, that the strength they fondly believe to reside in the mere Democratic name, and to be as a consequence the impregnable fortress of the party which bears it, has passed away from it, never to return.

The Doylestown Democrat, owned and edited by Gen. Davis, the Democratic candidate for Auditor General, prints an editorial in defense of the infamous Capt. Wirz, who starved and murdered our prisoners at Andersonville. It asserts that the military commission, before which Wirz is on trial, is a usurpation of power, and that the prisoner has not been fairly dealt with.

Gen. W. W. H. Davis makes this assertion when he knows that the testimony against the monster, Wirz, comes from Union soldiers who suffered at Andersonville, who saw Wirz shoot in cold blood, Union prisoners who could not stand on their feet from the effects of starvation; from rebel surgeons who saw Wirz trample to death Union soldiers who were too weak to crawl on the ground. And yet W. W. H. Davis, through the columns of his journal, defends the inhuman acts of Wirz, asserting that his trial is unfair and that he is being held to trial is a military usurpation. What soldier in Pennsylvania can vote for a candidate advocating such sentiments? and may not we further ask, is there a soldier in the land who would fail to scorn any officer who thus defended the most brutal development of the rebellion?

The elections held in the Western States, for municipal and county offices, within the last six months, with scarcely an exception, have resulted in Union victories.

Cities and boroughs, heretofore largely Democratic in politics, have become radically changed, and cast immense majorities in opposition to their candidates. This revolution in politics is attributed to the feelings among returned soldiers. Western soldiers return to civil life to become politicians, at least so far as taking an interest in the result of elections is concerned. All over the country, the rank and file of the late volunteer army are the most active men in urging on the people Union candidates for posts of trust and honor.

The trial of Wirz at Washington, is coming to a close. Every day brings new testimony of his brutal cruelty to the Union prisoners at Andersonville. Clear evidence is given that he on many occasions shot down men without any provocation. On Friday when one witness testified to this fact, he sank upon the sofa overpowered with emotion, and seemed almost dying. It is thought he will not live till the case is closed.

The voters of the 1st Maine Heavy Artillery, stationed in the fortifications around Washington city, at the election in their camp for State officers, cast 900 votes out of 1,000, for the Union State ticket.

As the heroes of the State of Maine voted so will the heroes of the Keystone State vote on the 2d Tuesday of October.

SPECULATION IN WHEAT.—Information at the Agricultural Bureau goes to show that the recent rise in the price of wheat and flour results from speculative combinations rather than scarcity in the crop. The wheat yield, though less than last year, is vastly more than can be consumed by the American people.

The steamer Ojibway sailed from San Francisco on the 18th, with $1,550,000 in gold for New York, and $670,000 for England, and 950 passengers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The World has an extraordinary story relating the "moon hoar," of gold and gems found by the square yard in Mount Cenis tunnel, including diamonds, sapphires, rubies, topaz, emeralds, gold, silver, malachite, in endless profusion. The work in the tunnel was stopped, and the discoverer was murdered by his fellow-workmen, one of whom was arrested by the Government. He had previously given his deposition of the facts of the discovery to the correspondent who furnishes the statement to the World.
